

Directions

The Kololo Game Reserve offers a charter flight service as well as a transfer bus service from Johannesburg International Airport.

The transfer fees are subject to change depending on the date of booking and number of people. Often these prices will vary depending on certain packages and routes taken.

The Kololo Game Reserve will confirm the exact price at the confirmation of your booking.

Many people choose to fly in with the charter flight and then drive the scenic route back to the airport when they are more relaxed and rested.

If you are self-driving to Kololo here follows these directions from Johannesburg International Airport:

Take the R21 north to Pretoria(Tswane). Closer to Pretoria turn off from the R21 onto the N1 and continue north past Pretoria direction Pietersburg(Polokwane). Turn left on the R33 to Nylstroom (Modimolle) at the Kranskop toll gate. Go through Nylstroom and through Vaalwater(Mabatlane) (Do not turn right on R33 to Ellisras in Vaalwater - continue straight to Bulgeriver/Thabazimbi) and 8km after Vaalwater turn left on the Bakkerspas road (there is a sign to Kololo). Drive 29 km on a dirt road and find Kololo's gate on your right. Total distance from Airport to Kololo about 280km.

Road transfer service cost (3 hour's drive):

Minibus with aircon carrying 2 to 12 people: € 80 per person one way.

Estimated charter flight cost (approximately 40 minutes flight): €330 per person
